

Main content elements for teacher/educator education

- modified status of language development and a modified approach to English as a second language
- a body of practically relevant knowledge concerning language and language development
- methods of classroom interventions
- competences to develop a school-based language policy

